

Department of English

Been platform for the supportive role in learning international language, the Department of English has the exceptional commitment to provide lifelong learning of Engineering students in Technological University (Mandalay). The department is pledged to foster the Engineering students, studying diverse engineering fields, to be the individuals who can apply English Language as the medium of sustainable development in life.

Motto

“English – The Door To The World”

Vision

To be a globally recognized department, supporting English Language proficiency to all engineering students from TUM

Mission

- To prescribe the new English curriculum and syllabus
- To create new teaching methods that can improve the students’ language skills
- To teach practice the reading skill effectively
- To provide the special English Language training classes for all teachers and students

Research Area/ Field

- Professional Development
- Innovative Teaching Methods
- Curriculum Development
- Assessment and Evaluation for Effective Language Teaching

-